THE NORMANDY IN ALL ITS! 7d/6n

1st day:

In the morning, guided tour of Lisieux, which is considered to be the second town of pilgrimage in France. You'll discover the historic places as episcopal palace and its garden, house of the Canons, and the house of the High Dean, and of course, the Basilica Ste Thérèse, one of the biggest churches in the twentieth century. Then, visit of the manor of St Hippolyte in St Martin de la Lieue, an historical heritage of a traditional farm. Built in 16th century in a timber frame construction, this place is a mixture of the modernity and the richness of the past... You will discover the farm in activity and the cheese dairy; tasting of several Norman cheese. Lunch.

In the afternoon, discovery of Honfleur by boat tour. Boarding for a walk during 1h30 in the estuary of the Seine: Normandy Bridge, Honfleur's beach...

Then, free time to visit the city by yourself. It is especially known for its old, beautiful picturesque port, characterized by its houses with slate-covered frontages, painted many times by artists. Road towards the Château du Breuil en Auge, which welcomes you to visit its distillery. Tasting Calvados, and discover the place built in 16th and 17th century.

Return to Lisieux at your hotel for the accommodation and the dinner.

2nd day:

Departure for a new discovery of another area the Seine Maritime. First, you will visit Rouen by the little train, a nice way to visit the city: the Cathedral, the old market place, St Maclou Church... Lunch in Rouen. After, you will go to the Albâtre coaster in Fecamp to visit this town: Fecamp's authenticity and natural charm appeal to visitors. The abbey church of the Holy Trinity, the palace of the Dukes of Normandy.

Then, free time in Etretat which appeal to visitors due its awesome cliffs!

Courtine, Manneporte, the Aval and Amont cliffs, the Vaudieu rock or the Aiguille de Belval. Mysterious names borne by these sculptures carved by the sea in the chalk and flint of the Pays de Caux plateau. Return to Lisieux in evening while passing over the Normandy Bridge. Dinner and accommodation.

3rd day:

You will leave Calvados area to go to Orne region. In first, true Horse Temple, one of the most famous national stud farms, the Haras du Pin opens the doors of the stables and rides through the history of more than two centuries of horse breeding in France. Built in the early eighteenth century buildings, which combines stone and brick, they will seduce you with their elegance. You will take your lunch in a wonderful room of the Chateau of Carrouges from the 14th and 17th century, and after having visited this castle that is made out of brick, granit and slate. It belonged to the same family between the 14th century and 1936. The furnitures, paintings and decor are from the Renaissance periode. You can also visit its park and garden. Return to Lisieux in passing through Falaise, to see the Chateau of William the Conqueror, which was built in 12th century. Dinner and accommodation.

4th day:

This day, you leave Lisieux to go to Villedieu les Poêles. But before to go there, you will take a guided tour of the landing beaches: the Bessin coastline is composed of steep chalk cliffs, which rise one hundred feet or so above the sea. The future of France and Europe was at stake here on 6th June 1944. When you visit this beach which extends over the Pointe du Hoc to Ouistreham, you will obtain a clearer idea of the progress of the battles. Lunch in Caen, and guided tour of the capital of Lower Normandy: William the Conqueror lent the town his favour in the 11th century and commissioned many of the city's most famous sites including the Abbey aux Hommes and the Abbey aux Dames. Caen was rebuilt after the War. Road toward Villedieu les Poêles for the accommodation and the dinner. Villedieu les Poêles is a small Norman citadel which has housed since the middle Ages a famous center for copper work. The first bell foundry workers came from Lorraine and settled here in the 16th century. At that time, they exercised a traveling craft.

5th day:

This day is dedicated to the Mont Saint Michel: The Mont-Saint-Michel is an international place of pilgrimage as well as a major tourist center. The different stages of its construction have created a unique architectural ensemble which was classified as a World Heritage Site by Unesco in 1979. Situated between the Point of Grouin (Cancalle) in Brittany and the Point of Champeaux (towards Granville), in Normandy, the Bay of Mont-Saint-Michel is also included on the UNESCO list of World Cultural and Natural Heritage sites 79. To understand this site, you will visit the four museums which tell you the History from the origins until today. Lunch in the Mont Saint Michel.

In the late afternoon, return to Villedieu les Poêles to visit the bell-foundry of the Cornille-Havard which is one of the rare world specialists in campanology. The origin of bells is very old. As early as Antiquity, small bells were used, "cattle bells" made up of two curved steel plates and joined by rivets. Dinner and accommodation.

6th day:

You leave the south of Manche area to the north in Cherbourg. In the morning, you will discover the Cité de la Mer museum: The Sub-marine and Ocean sections plunge visitors into the depths of the sea, in a veritable palace of science and distractions. Brand new exhibition 'Titanic, Return to Cherbourg' for 2012. Lunch at that place. Then, you will go to the Val de Saire for a guided tour: The Saire Valley or Val de Saire as it is known in French is a nice little corner of Normandy situated at the tip of the Cotentin Peninsula, in the Eastern Channel.

Agriculture, fishing, oyster farming, tourism and history are at the heart of this yet untouched region. Passage through Barfleur, Montfarville and Gatteville. Dinner and accommodation.

7th day:

Departure after the breakfast to your region.
